

AWARENESS

*To be aware of oneself is good.
It comes with growth, that's understood.
By mother's side, we learned our prayers.
God's blessings, yes, with us he shares.*

*When we were taught good from bad,
Good morals we learned, when just a lad.
But, sometimes we cried, oh yes, we cried.
Dear Lord, this thorn take from my side.*

*Then Jesus said, you have my grace,
You 're strong enough, go finish the race.
In weakness, then, I am made strong,
And in this race, I do belong.*

*Your presence, Lord, I am aware,
And in Your grace, I hope to share.
Awareness, as said St. Paul,
Of Your presence, it is my all.*
