For All That Has Been, Thanks. For All That Will Be, YES!

Dear Friend of Holy Cross,

This summer the brothers of the Midwest Province conducted our triennial chapter. This is a constitutional gathering of province members to review what we have accomplished since the previous province chapter, to examine our current commitments to prayer, community and ministry, and to complete a strategic planning process for the coming three years.

During the week of chapter we identified several challenges, confronted them squarely, and agreed upon courses of action. The most critical decision was to collaborate with the other Holy Cross provinces in the U.S. toward a congregational approach to restructuring as mandated in the community's 2004 General Chapter, the highest authority in the Congregation of Holy Cross. We looked at the choices and decided that we could no longer maintain the status quo, but that we must change for the welfare of our ministries and for those of the congregation. In short, it was time to think globally rather than provincially.

Brother Chester
Freel, C.S.C.,
Provincial Superior

Each day at chapter as we gathered for liturgy in the chapel, a banner proclaimed these words of spiritual wisdom from Dag Hammarskjöld: For all that has been, Thanks. For all that will be, YES! These words summarize well the position in which we find ourselves.

This decision to promote collaboration with other provinces follows the path of our founder, Blessed Basil Moreau, and his earliest congregational structure in North America. Until 1946 we were but one U.S. province consisting of both brothers and priests living and working side by side, as a visible sign to the Church of unity between the two societies. To this end, the chapter directed me, as their Provincial, to begin preparing for this change toward a single province by dialogue and collaboration with our Holy Cross confreres.

We are grateful and rightly proud of where we have been and what we have accomplished as the Midwest Province, but this will now be our legacy to the next generation. The decisions of this summer's chapter give direction for the province and for my efforts over the next three years. Uncertainties are inevitable as we begin this course, but as men with hope to bring we are able to face these yet to be defined opportunities, and confidently say, "For all that will be, YES!"

In this edition of BROTHERS we thank our friends who have supported us during this past year. It is each of the names listed here that have made possible the current ministries of the Brothers of Holy Cross, and so we say, "For all that has been, Thanks."

While the various stages of change are being implemented, we are very conscious of the uncertainties regarding where and with whom we may be sharing directions in service, but we know that we are called by God to remain in ministry helping in a multitude of ways those who continue to rely on Holy Cross as signs of Christ's loving presence. As our colleagues in mission, we extend this same call for you to join with us praying, "For all that will be, YES!"

It is because of such generous friends as you that we have been able to do as much as we have. Moving forward and enabled by your kindness, we approach the future with hope, joy and a strong sense of mission. Thank you for your support and belief in us and for saying your own YES to our ministries, now and into the future.

May St. Joseph, Patron of the Brothers, pray for you and us.

In Holy Cross,
Brother Chester Freel, C.S.C.

Thank You From All the Brothers

Recently a friend of mine who studied at the Indiana University School of Philanthropy asked me if I knew the two principal reasons why folks do not contribute to causes or charities. The first reason, he said, is that people are not asked. Surprisingly, the second is that they are not thanked.

This newsletter responds to both of those reasons. We are asking you again to give in honor of, in gratitude to, or in memory of someone who has been a difference maker in your life or that of your family. Or simply to help us with our most pressing needs, healthcare and retirement. This annual printing of our Honor Roll of Donors is a way to thank you for your generosity this year, and, for many of you, over several years. Even amidst tough economic times, you, our donors, have continued to support us. As I have often said, we are encouraged by your sustained giving.

Three lines in the poem "Persons Are Gifts" by Fr. George Nintemann, O.P., are especially noteworthy to me: "I am a person. Therefore, I am a gift, too! A gift to myself, first of all. And I am a gift to others. Every meeting of persons is an exchange of gifts."

One of the joys of my ministry is meeting people whose lives have been influenced by the Brothers of Holy Cross. Some have, in turn, significantly impacted the lives of the brothers and others.

In Chicago, a former student of Brother Edward Libbers, C.S.C., said he was the best teacher he had, high school or college. More than once I have heard people say, "If it had not been for the Brothers of Holy Cross, I would not be where I am today." The late Brother Carl Shonk, C.S.C., had similar comments made about him by former students on a number of occasions.

You, our donors, are gifts to the Brothers of Holy Cross. While you have made contributions over these many months and years, your presence with us is a gift also.

Thank you for your support and fidelity throughout the years. On behalf of all the brothers I express our deepest gratitude to you.

Gratefully,
Brother Roy Smith, C.S.C.
Director of Development
