QUESTION OF A SPECIAL VOCATION

+ On the evening of March 7, 1986, seventy Priests and Brothers of Holy Cross met in the lounge of the Brothers' Center to discuss the role of the Coadjutor Brother in the light of the 1986 General Chapter to be held at Notre Dame this summer.

Father Richard Warner, Provincial of the Indiana Priests' Province, and Brother Thomas Moser, Provincial of the Midwest Brothers' Province, chaired the meeting. Five Brothers from the Priests' Province gave presentations that developed the theme of the meeting: "The Life of the Coadjutor Brother as a Special Vocation." Each of the five Brothers explained how he had come to Holy Cross to specifically work with the Priests of our Congregation.

In response, Brothers Barry Lambour, William Mewes, and Lawrence Miller gave presentations focusing in on the life and work of the Coadjutor Brother. There were some points made that agreed with the idea of the "special vocation" and some that did not.

It was, however, in Brother Lawrence's presentation that all points of concern seemed addressed. He pointed out that Article #6 of the 1968 Constitution states: "...in the clerical society there are also coadjutor (lay?) religious...united by the same traditions, spirit and way of life, by collaboration in the apostolate and mutual assistance, and by a single government." The 1974 Constitutions contain the same wording in this matter. However, the Working Document of 1984 does not include the Coadjutor Brothers nor do the proposed statutes.

From this and from the appeal on the part of the Coadjutor Brothers present at the meeting that they be free to grow and develop in numbers and ministries, Brother Lawrence stated "that there be a Constitution like Article #6 (only up-date it), and that those involved, in this case, the Coadjutor Brothers, be free to do so. In this sense, distinctions based on ministry in the Church should diminish and the equality of all our members as religious be realized."

BRO. THOMAS MOSER (L) AND FR. RICHARD WARNER HOSTING MEETING OF THE COAJUTOR BROTHERS.

Brother Lawrence concluded that through understanding we should be able to remain open even to the fusion of the societies which God, in time, may show us to be desirable. He said, "It seems to me that we should continue to work in the direction of understanding and collaboration before we are ready to make changes in our present Constitution."

Similar meetings were held in the other provinces of the Congregation.

BROTHER MAJELLA DIES AT 82

"UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN, MAY GOD HOLD YOU IN THE HOLLOW OF HIS HAND." An Irish Prayer

+ In the homily delivered by Fr. Frederick Schmitt of Indianapolis and the eulogy given by Br. Thomas Shaughnessy, Brother Majella was referred to as a legend in his time. And that he was. He was, indeed, the teacher's teacher--the one who refined us in our work. He also was the perfectionist, a great story teller, the Irish humorist, but above all, a BROTHER OF HOLY CROSS! Truly, a legend not soon to be forgotten.

Brother Majella (Maurice) Hegarty, 82, died at 6:25 p.m. on Monday, March 24, at Dujarie House, Notre Dame. He had been an in-residence patient since November, 1984.

BROTHER MAJELLA HEGARTY, CSC

He was born on April 15, 1903, in Indianapolis, Indiana. He is survived by two sisters: Mrs. Agnes Griffin of Indianapolis and Sister Anne Marie of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Due to Holy Week priorities, the funeral Mass was held on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in St. Joseph Chapel, Holy Cross Brothers' Center, Notre Dame. Burial services were held at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, followed by burial in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Brother Majella entered Holy Cross on October 22, 1922, received his religious habit on July 1, 1923, made his first vows on July 2, 1924, and his final vows on July 2, 1927. He received his BA from the University of Notre Dame and his MA from Columbia Teachers College in New York.

From 1926-28 he taught at Holy Cross H. S., New Orleans; from 1928-29 at Central Catholic H.S., Fort Wayne, IN and at St. Charles Boys Home, Milwaukee, WI; from 1929-33 at Cathedral H.S., Indianapolis, IN; and from 1933-35 at Monsignor Coyle H.S., Taunton, MA. From 1935-36 he resumed studies at Columbia University, New York. From 1936-39 he taught at Vincentian Institute, Albany, NY; from 1939-47 at Sacred Heart Juniorate, Watertown, WI; and from 1947-57 at St. Edward's University, Austin, TX. From 1957 to 1971 he served as Supervisor of Instruction for Holy Cross Brothers' schools of the Midwest Province. From 1971 to 1974 he was Assistant Librarian at Holy Cross Junior College, Notre Dame. In December of 1974 he retired to Columba Hall where he remained till November of 1984. From that time until his death, he lived at Dujarie House.

Other than being remembered for his meticulous observations in the classroom, he is noted for his books TECHNIQUE OF TEACHING and TIPS FOR TEENS. Both were used by beginning teachers and young students across the U.S. during the 1950s and 1960s.

DEMONSTRATING FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE

PEACE AND JUSTICE by Br. William Mewes

+ February brought much joy in Justiceville with the news of the peaceful overthrow of the Marcos regime and the settlement of the Campbell's Soup Company boycott, a boycott that lasted seven years, a boycott supported by the Midwest Brothers' Social Justice Commission. Just wages, working and living conditions were the Farm Labor Organizing Committee's main goals in organizing midwestern farmers. Campbell's controlled the prices paid to the growers who, in turn, could not afford to be just to the farmworkers; therefore, the boycott was called against Campbell's.

universal principle, but the road to justice is often a road to sacrifice, and that's when people start getting off. It can be seen that individuals arriving at the Pearly Gates might say, "Lord, I'm for justice, but it was too much to give up Campbell's Soup" or "I was for justice, but I couldn't bother trying to boycott all those products: soup, V-8, Vlasic pickles, Franco-American, etc."

+ The Midwest Province Notre Dame/South Bend area discussion group on the U.S. Catholic Bishops' pastoral letter on war and peace: God's Promise and Our Response concluded at Columba Hall on March 12.

The group noted that the bishops state that we are called to move from discussion to witness and action. The Bishops suggest prayer, penance and actions to promote peace. The group plans to hold an area prayer service for peace. Time and place will be announced later.

+ A commemoration march honoring the martyred Archbishop Oscar Romero and victims of the Contra aid proposed by President Reagan was held Monday, March 24 at 5:00 p.m., starting at St. Joseph High School, South Bend, and terminating in an open area facing U.S. 31 between the Brothers' Center and St. Mary's College. The march was sponsored by the South Bend Pledge of Resistance, the Witness for Peace, and the Holy Cross Justice & Peace Center. Over 100 crosses bearing names of Archbishop Romero and civilians whose deaths are attributed to Contra activities were carried in a solemn, prayerful procession. After the crosses were set up along the highway,

FROM GATES MILLS, OHIO:

+ Holy Cross Brothers from the Ohio area met at Gilmour Academy on February 22 for the opening of the provincial visitation in the state. The procedure was comparable to that written up on page one of the March issue of HCB.

OHIO COMMUNITIES LISTENING TO PROVINCIAL PRESENTATIONS GIVEN AT GILMOUR ACADEMY.

Brochures have been sent out from the Gilmour Academy Montessori School for the 1986 fall term. This new dimension to the Gilmour scene will be admitting young students from the ages of 2 1/2 to 5.

The Student Council sponsored a canned food/staples/paper goods drive to benefit the indigent of Greater Cleveland from March 19 to March 26.

Bro. Michael Flanagan brought home some surprising statistics from the National Association of Independent Schools conference: Since 1980, knowledge in general has doubled. Before 1990 it will double again, and by the year 2000 it will double every 30 days...Another recent study suggested that TV watching be limited to six hours a week for children; it now exceeds 24 hours a week.

FROM RIVER GROVE, ILLINOIS:

This prayerful experience has realized over $51,000 for the poor over the past 13 years.

AT THE BROTHERS' CENTER:

+ Brother James Kell's LIFE/WORK PLANNING WORKSHOP was held on March 8 and 9. The intensive workshop-program was attended by 29 Brothers and Sisters from around the Midwest area.

The larger-than-anticipated group made for effective interaction among the participants as well as for advantageous sharing of experiences.

The workshop was made up of a series of exercises designed to develop greater self knowledge so as to take advantage of what may come along as a result of making new choices in life or dealing with a present situation.

The enthusiasm generated by the program prompted a number of the participants to recommend the workshop to others who are looking for a greater independence for life direction.

ALL'S WELL IN ALASKA.FROM ANCHORAGE, ALASKA:

+ In a recent telephone conversation with Brother Joe Barry, Youth Ministry Office for the Archdiocese of Anchorage, it was learned that the eruptions from Mt. Augustine had very little effect on the living conditions of the Brothers' community. A heavy snowfall coupled with a health hazard warning from the volcanic drop-out, however, caused the cancellation of the annual Good Friday Walk. Word from Bob and Dorothy Carrigan, caretakers of the summer camp on the Kenai Peninsula, is that conditions are not as bad as reported by the news media.

Brother Joe was joined by Brother John McMuldren, Director of Youth Ministry, and Brothers Dave and Bob of the Servants of Christ (Serving the Street People of Anchorage) for a religious retreat at Mount Alyeska during Easter week.

Brother Don Gibbs, Midwest Vocations Office, will be visiting the Anchorage community and conducting interviews with potential candidates in mid-April.

THIRD AGE POTENTIAL WORKSHOP

RECOGNIZING AND DEVELOPING LEADERSHIP AMONG PERSONS OVER SIXTY

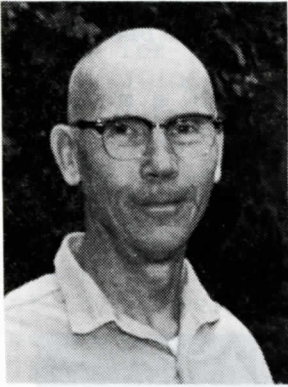

+ The Workshop on Third Age Potential will be held at the Fatima Retreat House, Notre Dame, Indiana, from July 27 to August 1. Using the model developed by Fr. Louis Putz, CSC, this workshop shows how Third Age Centers can be developed so that participants (open to 30 layity and 30 religious) may be encouraged to explore the possibilities of Centers in their own civic and religious communities.

Essential aspects of each Center's program are: Improving the self-image and public concept of Third Agers, Volunteer Services, Continuing Education, Recreation as Celebration, Spirituality for Third Agers, and Community involvement.

IN ROUTE:

+ Brother Bernard Klim recently stopped overnight at the Center in early March. He was on his way back to Italy, after a stop at Gilmour Academy, Gates Mills.

BROTHER BERNARD KLIM, C.S.C.

While Bernard was in the States for his sabbatical, he spent time near Liberty, New York and Mt. Baldy, California, deepening his understanding and appreciation of Zen. The program, under the direction of Rev. Eido Tai Shimano-Roshi, Zen Master, had been an experience that created the atmosphere of a Buddhist monastery and that helped him to reach the planes of contemplation and mysticism. It was witnessing that took him beyond the clutter of everyday life. It was an emptying of himself so that there was a clarity that brought about a better understanding of suffering, compassion, and forgiveness. From this, the understanding of John of the Cross and Francis of Assisi made a lot of sense. The Gospels and the word of Christ become an extraordinary set of road signs that became incredibly clear.

Brother Bernard also left his creative mark with us in a number of metal sculptures that are on display in the Provincial House. It is hoped to realize a one-man show of his works here in the Notre Dame area in the near future.

Pray for them...

FR. JOHN DUPUIS, C.S.C., who died at Casa Santa Cruz in Phoenix, Arizona, on March 9. He was waked at Moreau Seminary on the 12th, with the Funeral Mass at Sacred Heart Church and burial at Notre Dame on the 13th.

MRS. GERTRUDE E. MEYER, the mother of Brother Jerome (Lakewood), who died in Cleveland, Ohio, on Tues., March 18.

+ Archaeological digs and discoveries are common in the Holy Land, even at Mater Ecclesiae with Br. Eduardo carefully removing layers of ground, reviewing them and then replacing them. He continues his diggings with experiences gained at Valatie, Lakewood, and Sekondi. The bucket brigade is manned by the Sisters since he now lacks the detention crews of the past.

He is now in the midst of typing into a computer the code of procedures and the general outline for the work of the Chapter. It must be remembered that all of this is to be done in both English and French. He will be returning to the Midwest for the General Chapter in June. At that time it will be a matter of setting up the secretariat in Pasquerilla West Hall where all the capitulants and personnel for the chapter will be staying.

FROM CHIMBOTE, PERU:

+ In a recent letter to Brother Charles Smith, Brother John Benesh relates how all of his credentials were not accepted in Peru until they are "processed" by the Peruvian Consul General in Chicago. To be sure, all transactions had to be hand transported to assure the security of the originals. Sr. Donna Williams will do the footwork in Chicago, after which John will have to wait for C.S.C. missionaries or travelers to finally get the documents to him by hand delivery in Chimbote.

John has been in Chimbote since December 10 and already feels at home. He had visited Chimbote three times before moving in; so he had no problem acclimating to his new home. He does a little tutoring, goes to numerous liturgies on weekends, does "handyman" work around the house, cooks, shops, and helps to take care of the house. He, nevertheless, enjoys the slow pace of life. He also keeps in touch with Br. Donald Kuchenmeister in Chile.

Between the lines

SADHANA: A Way to God, Christian Exercises in Eastern Form, by Anthony De Mello, SJ, The Institute of Jesuit Sources, 3700 West Pine Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63108. $5.00.

Sadhana has been reviewed as "...perhaps the best book available today in English for Christians on how to pray, meditate, and contemplate...Sadhana, (pronounced Sod'-ah-na) is an Indian word rich in meanings, such as discipline, a technique, spiritual exercises, an approach to God... The author aims to teach interested readers how to pray, through a series of practices drawn from the Church's traditions, St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises, oriental techniques stemming from sources such as Yoga or Zen Buddhism, and modern psychology. See IN ROUTE article on page six.

The author is director of the Sadhana Institute in Poona, India. Some years ago he was an elected delegate of his Province of Bombay to the General Congregation of the Society of Jesus held in Rome. There, "in the early mornings he conducted sessions of a half hour or so for small voluntary prayer groups of delegates and some other Jesuits."

During the prayer sessions, "the helps which were proposed for the aims of prayer were the following: the use of the imagination; the repetition of certain words, for example, the name of Jesus; chanting; measured breathings; a relaxed body position; the help which personal prayer gives to community life when it is made up by a group at the same time in the same place."

Recently I learned that SADHANA is now on cassettes.

De Mello ends his book with the beautiful expression from Julian of Norwich: "All will be well, and all will be well, and every kind of thing will be well."

If the idea of "exercises" does not appeal to you, this book is, nevertheless, good spiritual reading. The last part of the book, roughly thirty pages, under the general title of devotion, de Mello draws on "Benedictine" and "Ignatian" spirituality, and makes good use of such spiritual classics like The Way of the Pilgrim, The Cloud of Unknowing, and the writings of St. Teresa of Avila.
