February 1, 1969

Brothers Kenneth Levendoski, Maxim Diver and Neil Dvorak did not renew vows on January 26, 1969.

Brother Stephen Withey has been assigned to Holy Cross High School, River Grove, for the second semester. He will take courses in mathematics at Wright Junior College in preparation for joining the faculty of Holy Cross High School in September.

Brother Robert Ludwig has been assigned to mission work in Brazil. He will be stationed at Colegio Notre Dame de Campinas---Campinas, Brazil. Brother will leave about February 14 to take up his new assignment.

Brother Germanus Burns, Guidance Counselor at Notre Dame High School, West Haven, Connecticut, will spend some time at Le Mans Academy in acquainting himself with the guidance procedures and problems on the grade school level.

Brother Andrew Steffes will return from Pakistan in May to participate in the Fiftieth Anniversary celebration of Brother Damian Daele, Brother Norbert Henske and himself. The exact date has not been set yet for the celebration, but it will be around mid-June. The group has the distinction of not losing a single member who were in the Novitiate (Priests and Brothers) except by death.

Brother Cletus Hammer has informed the Provincial that the house at Monroe will have a three-day retreat during Easter Week (April 10, 11 and 12). Father Putz, CSC, will be the retreat master. There is room for four Brothers from other houses if any are interested. Please contact Brother Cletus to make the necessary arrangements.

the Midwest Province has been invited by the Diocese of Cleveland to supply a Director and one or two additional Brothers to supervise St. Anthony's Boys Home in Cleveland. The matter is under consideration, but no decision has been reached as yet.

Brother Keric Dever, Director of Vincent Hall Scholasticate in Texas, informs us that there are 25 scholastics from three provinces at Vincent Hall for the second semester. Brothers Thomas Steffensmeier and Thomas Hodgkiss, recently assigned there, arrived five hours late because the train they were on hit a truck somewhere between St. Louis and Temple, Texas.

Brother Charles Krupp recently completed the Provincial Visits at St. Joseph's High School, South Bend, and Cathedral High School, Indianapolis. He is presently making the Visit at BOYSVILLE. Brother will continue with the Visits at the schools as he is able to do so. Brother Rex will begin shortly with the Visits to the Houses at Notre Dame.

Brother Kenneth Goodpaster signed dispensation papers on January 17, 1969.

Brother John Driscoll recently participated in a meeting at St. Mary's College called by the Indiana Association of Colleges and Universities. The meeting was to acquaint members of the new Indiana State Legislature with the financial needs and difficulties private institutions are facing because of increasing costs in higher education.

Added Notes on Holy Cross Junior College: Enrollment for the second semester will be about 175.....At the end of the first semester, students transferred to eight different colleges, mostly in the Mid-West area.....A student council was recently inaugurated at the college. Membership of the council is two co-eds, two non-Religious male students and two Holy Cross Brothers.
