BROTHERS of HOLY CROSS - NOTRE DAME, INDIANA 46556

Vol. 7, No. 1

September 8, 1973

The Associates of St. Joseph held their biennial convention at Le Mans Academy, Rolling Prairie, Indiana, on August 3, 4, and 5. They wound up their festivities with Mass and dinner at the Brothers Center on Sunday. There was much prayer, many speeches, and much song and dance during the three-day gathering, which was smoothly and humorously coordinated by the chairman, Brother Thomas Corcoran. Speakers at the convention included Fr. Robert Malone, Sr. Catherine De Ricci, Brothers Eymard Salzman, Charles Krupp, Donald Allen, Edward Dailey, Peter Michelin, Chester Rachel, Robert Fillmore, James Moroney, and Pedro Haering.

Brothers Shaun Gray and Thomas C. Henning pronounced their final vows in a celebration at Le Mans Academy on Saturday, August 18. Fr. Tom McNally was the main celebrant at the Mass

Brothers Robert Fillmore, James Moroney, and three aspirants moved into their newly rented house, 1432 E. Cedar Street, South Bend, Indiana 46617. Phone: (219) 232-3619. The aspirants are: Chris Dreyer, Ray Gardner, and Tom Kavanagh.

Brother Robert Dailey made his first profession of promises at Bennington, Vermont, on August 4. Brother Robert Livernoise made his first profession at Rolling Prairie, Indiana, on August 11.

On Saturday, September 1, a planning session for a COMMUNITY OF FAITH WORKSHOP was held at the Brothers Center. Attending were: Brothers Barry Lambour (chairman), Robert Siegel, Charles Smith, John Miller, Louis Mangini, Gonzaga Day, Douglas Roach, Columba Curran. The workshop will be held on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday morning, November 23, 24, and 25. The workshop is open to all personnel in our schools and institutions. It will deal with ways the school can become a living faith community--one which witnesses the presence and reality of the risen Lord Jesus to and for the culture in which the faith community exists.

Brothers Pedro Haering, Bruce Lescher, John Tryon, and Robert Livernois have moved into their new residence at 19612 Eaton Avenue, South Bend, Indiana 46637.

Summer school grades and credits should be sent to Brother Douglas Roach. Thanks to all who have already done so.

Newly appointed superiors and directors: Br. James May at Bishop David H. S., Louisville; Br. Robert Mosher at Holy Trinity H. S., Chicago; Br. Donald Allen for a second term at St. Edward H. S., Cleveland; Charles Smith for the Kedzie Community in Chicago.

The following Brothers did not renew temporary vows this summer: Joseph Gerlock Charles Lippert, Ed Mack (Miecznikowski), David Moeller, Glenn Rousey.

Five Brothers from Bishop David H. S. participated in a six-day Better World Movement retreat at John Carroll University from August 5 to 11. The sixty-eight participants included sisters, priests, lay people and brothers. The retreat focused on development of community through meditations, sharing prayer and ideas, and liturgies planned by members of the group. Four team members directed the retreat; the team included two Jesuit priests, a Dominican Sister, and a lay woman.

During the past year the Association of St. Joseph contributed $2,100 for refugees of Bangladesh. Over the past nine years the Association has given $148,531.00 to the Midwest Province; of this sum, $62,505 was given by Associate Chapters in our schools.

Edward Brand and Thomas Golden began their novitiate at Bennington, Vermont, on August 15. There are 19 in the group, from various CSC provinces.

Br. Joseph McTaggart has begun his duties at the University of Notre Dame; he is on the campus ministry team and also assistant rector at Fisher Hall. His phone: (219) 283-7525.
