BROTHERS of HOLY CROSS - NOTRE DAME, INDIANA 46556

Vol. 10, No. 9

May 1977

ST. CHARLES BOYS HOME MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

Br. Gregoire Bleau is well on the way to good health after his recent heart surgery. He wishes to thank community members for their sincere concern, prayers, and cards.  Br. Richard Kearney addressed the Wisconsin Resources Conference in Madison on April 25. He spoke to a group of 200 persons on "The Councilor's Role on the Crisis Hot Line."  Br. Warren Shea, a board member of Badger Kart Club, opened the season with two entries from St. Charles at Douseman, Wisconsin, on April 24.  Br. Roy Smith has been doing substitute teaching at Harambee School since April. Roy is also active in black ministry and is preparing for the Black Family Day celebration in September.  The National Child Care Conference has asked Br. Arthur Gohl to give a series of six lectures on art therapy for handicapped children in Chicago in September.  The first weekend in May, Br. James Blume conducted a retreat for a CYO group at the Franciscan Seminary in Burlington. He is also preparing a group of high school students for Confirmation and is being assisted by Br. Arthur Gohl.

BLAINE SCHOLASTICATE SOUTH BEND, INDIANA

Br. Christopher Dreyer received the Diocesan Award of Merit for Youth Leadership on April 24. He serves as assistant scout master at Holy Cross Parish.  Br. Bruce Lescher was in Chicago with other representatives of peace and justice groups during the Bishops' meeting in early May.  Brs. Roman Smith, Chris Dreyer, and Bruce Lescher attended the workshop, "Poverty: A Call to Discipleship," in Adrian, Michigan, the first weekend in May.  Br. Tom Kavanagh participated in the Notre Dame "Bookstore Basketball" playoffs at Notre Dame.  Br. Chris Dreyer made a directed retreat in Milwaukee from April 2 to 9.

LE MANS ACADEMY ROLLING PRAIRIE, INDIANA

The remodeled student recreation center was dedicated on April 24. Mrs. James B. McCahey directed the campaign for $14,000 for the project.  Brs. James Blume and Roy Smith conducted a weekend retreat for the 8th and 9th grade students. Fr. Edward Reitz conducted a day of recollection for the younger students.  Br. Edward Grams assisted with the Easter liturgy at St. John Canty Parish. Brs. Basil Thomas and James Blaszak now assist at Sacred Heart Parish, La Porte, as extraordinary ministers.  Brs. Donald Allen and James Newberry assisted with the local house retreat at the Lourdes Retreat Center in Cedar Lake, Indiana, during Holy Week.  In April, Archbishop Lawrence Graner, C.S.C., administered the sacrament of Confirmation to 47 students.  Installation of the pipe organ in the chapel is near completion. Originally made for the chapel at Sacred Heart in Watertown, the organ was dismantled when the Academy moved in 1968. Mr. Paul Stockinger of South Bend is directing the reconstruction, assisted by Brs. William Dusseau, Leo Kowalski, and Shaun Gray.  Br. Leo Kowalski has been conducting the morning prayer for faculty and students in the chapel each day.

BROTHERS CENTER
NOTRE DAME, INDIANA

In addition to his duties at Dujarie House (infirmar Br. Rudolph Talaga has assumed the post of sacristan at the Center, where he now resides.  Br. Richa Weber has completed construction of a fireplace in the community room at Basil Hall to facilitate community "fireside chats," weather permitting.  Frs. Bill Simmons and Dave Verhalen conducted the community retreat during the last half of Holy Week. Brs. Thaddeus Gottemoller, Leon Gnewuch, and Sigismund Danielski from Holy Trinity joined with the Center staff for the retreat, as did the staff and aspirants from Lincoln Way House.  The Holy Week services were well attended by lay people and community members in the area.  The local community celebrated the silver jubilees of Brs. John Driscoll, Raymond Harrington, and Fr.
Simmons with a liturgy, social hour and dinner on April 16.

ST. EDWARD HIGH SCHOOL
LAKEWOOD, OHIO

Brs. Jerome Meyer, Theophilus Machalinski, Isaac Jogues, Thomas Sisung, and Joseph Chvala assisted at the Holy Week tenebrae service in St. John Cathedral for religious Brothers and Sisters, presided over by Bishop James Hickey. ***
The local community voted unanimously to donate fifty dollars to the funding drive of the Pro-Life Society of Ohio.  St. Edward students donated $2,214.00 to the mission drive held in the school during Lent. Br. Leo Geiger headed the drive. *
Br. Lewis Brazil continues to direct students in his "Operation: Clean-Up" program designed to assist elderly in the community with house and yard clean-up and repair, as well as with helping in local homes for the elderly.  Brs. Amadeus Connor and Lewis Brazil bussed about fifty elderly from local senior citizen apartments to and from the school's spring musical, "Camelot."  Phil Donohue, television personality and St. Edward alumnus, spoke at the Father-Son Communion Breakfast sponsored by the Mothers' Club, of which Br. Amadeus Connor is moderator.
Some 500 attended the affair.  A record 430 freshman have registered for the fall term, with an additional number on the waiting list.

HOLY TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

The Holy Trinity Stamp Bureau, under the direction of Br. Celestis Mueller, is enjoying the most succes-ful of its eleven years. So far, our Holy Cross missions have benefited from over $700 contributed by generous benefactors outside the school.  A memorial fund in honor of the late Br. Fergus Burns has been started by Br. Celestis Mueller. Funds contributed have been forwarded to St.
Edward's University, Austin, Texas.

HOLY CROSS HIGH SCHOOL
RIVER GROVE, ILLINOIS

The annual musical was staged the last weekend in April with a presentation of "Oklahoma," directed by Br. Richard Shea.  Br. Joseph Dudek was a judge for the elementary school science fair in Melrose Park.  On March 26, over 170 religious, relatives, and friends joined Br. Richard Shea in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of his religious profession, at St. Cyprian Church, and with a reception and dinner at Holy Cross.  220 students participated in the annual 14-mile walk on Good Friday, which raised $4,000 for the missions in Bangladesh and Marillac Settlement House in Chicago.  Students and faculty donated 151 pints of blood in the annual blood drive sponsored by the senior class.  On March 18, the St. Joseph Day Mass was attended by 125 members of the Association of St. Joseph. Over half of the 95 couples who are members attend the monthly meetings.

ASSOCIATION OF ST. JOSEPH BROTHERS CENTER, NOTRE DAME

The biennial convention will be held at Le Mans Academy from August 5 to 7. Br. Eymard Salzman, director of the Association, is coordinating the program around the theme, "The Brothers in Today's Church." In addition to stress on our traditional apostolates in education, speakers will highlight some of the newer apostolates of community members. Br. Charles Krupp will present some reflections on our community today, and Brs. Chester Caster and Frederick Raeshler will speak on their work in the health profession. Br. Charles Smith will explain his apostolate in a special school in Chicago, and Br. Flavius Ellison will comment on Corvillia, a home for the mentally and physically handicapped in South Bend. Br. Joseph McTaggart will make a presentation on his role in campus ministry at Notre Dame. Chairman for the event is Br. Thomas Corcoran, and Fr. William Simmons will serve as chaplain.

THERE

Br. James Rottenbucher has been appointed the new superior of the Monroe community.  Br. Ephrem O'Dwyer, who will be 89 on May 25, has been in St. Joseph Hospital, South Bend, since late April.

He is in a generally weakened condition but seems to be slowly improving. On July 6, it will be seventy years since he received the habit in Holy Cross. ***

Br. Hobart Pieper returned to Bangladesh on April 14 after a home visit. ***

Br. Ronald Drahozal, Dacca District, arrived at the Brothers Center on April 27.

He has just completed a four-month program in religious renewal in Bangalore, India.  Br. Jerome Schwabe writes from Berkeley that in addition to his studies at the Graduate Theological Union, he has given a conference to the Mountain View community and has been active in youth ministry in the Bay area. He has given retreats and done counseling in high schools and also worked with several social service agencies. His name will appear in the new edition of the Marquis Who's Who in Religion.

RECOMMENDED READING:

Karl Rahner, Christian at the Crossroads (Seabury Press), $5.95.

With the insights so characteristic of him, Rahner develops reflections on the basic elements of the spiritual life: faith, the possibility and necessity of prayer, a theology of dying, and Easter hope.

David J. Hassel, "Prayer of Personal Reminiscence: Sharing One's Memories with Christ," Review for Religious, March, 1977.

Hassel gives a fresh approach to a form of prayer wherein the person's memories and past experiences can be recalled in a prayerful way. Citing Paul and Augustine, he outlines a way to pray which is highly personal and can enable the person to grow in an intimate relationship with the Lord.
