Our Poets, Past and Present

Prayer from Psalm 42

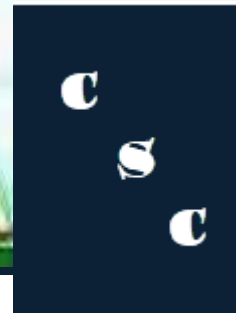

Like the deer that seeks a running stream,
So my soul yearns for You, my Shining Beam.
Your living water, Lord, I seek it now.
That stream of love, I'll find somehow.

My soul tells me, fret not inside,
Give evil thoughts no place to hide.
But listen for that bell, hear its chime,
It's God's Son, the Lamb's Supper Time.

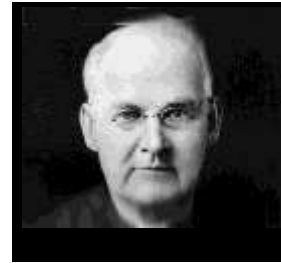

At times, Lord, I feel depressed inside.
Those times, come, with me abide.
With your grace in times of need,
I find strength, the will to lead.

I hear Your voice, deep within.
To heed Your call, I now begin.
But proud I am and often fall.
Again then, Lord, to You I call.

Dan Likes Long Pianos

7:15 PM, Thursday, October 13, Brother Dan Kane's Piano Recital will be played in the Moreau Seminary Chapel on Dan's Yamaha piano from Columba Hall (no way a concert grand, but an instrument of acceptable performance quality).

He recently concertized on Steinway concert grands in Gates Mills, Ohio, and in O'Neill Hall/LaBar Recital Hall at Notre Dame.

His program is less than an hour long, and includes works by Bach, Chopin, Mozart, and Debussy --some of which one will recognize.

Dan has studied piano and music at the Cleveland Institute of Music, the University of Notre Dame, and DePaul University in Chicago.

After a short break in the recital, he'll play a top-shelf selection by Chopin, (One might wonder how such a work could be written - and performed - on a piano!

A concert is also being planned for St. Edward High School in Lakewood, Ohio. There a Steinway concert grand will be used for the performance.

Dan is a member of the first class to graduate from St. Edward High School.

Holy Cross Roads Writings for the Journey

Coming Alive

When Jesus says, “I have come that you might have life and have it more abundantly” what is he saying? Sometimes we get bogged down with the “trees.” We are only aware of all of the small things that go wrong on a daily basis. We cannot comprehend the “forest.” Our vision cannot take in the total landscape. We need to comprehend where we have been, where we are, and where we are headed. In God’s plan for us, God uses all of the events of our lives for God’s purposes.

What can help us get in touch with the patterns that make up our lives? It is our faith that helps us see. The faith that can “move mountains” is a faith that is not afraid to move according to God’s plan for us. The clouds of our daily concerns give way to the sunlight of God’s love. It is that faith that reminds us that whatever we have to go through, it is not the end of the story. The often quoted line from Julian of Norwich applies here: “All will be well; all manner of things will be well.” With this faith we can come alive and receive the “abundant life” that Jesus wants us to have. Each day can be an opportunity to receive that life and be awakened to the exciting ways God is working in our lives.

- Do you become overwhelmed at times by the challenges of each day?
- What helps you to see the “forest” from the “trees”?
- How can your faith help you to come alive and experience the abundant life Jesus wants you to have?

O God, help me come alive with the abundant life that you promise those who have faith in you.

NATIONAL DAY FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION
September 30, 2022

September 30 is a day to reflect on the legacy of the Indian Residential schools, to remember the survivors and the children who never came home.

Providence Health Care has made the bold commitment to embed Truth and Reconciliation in everything we do.

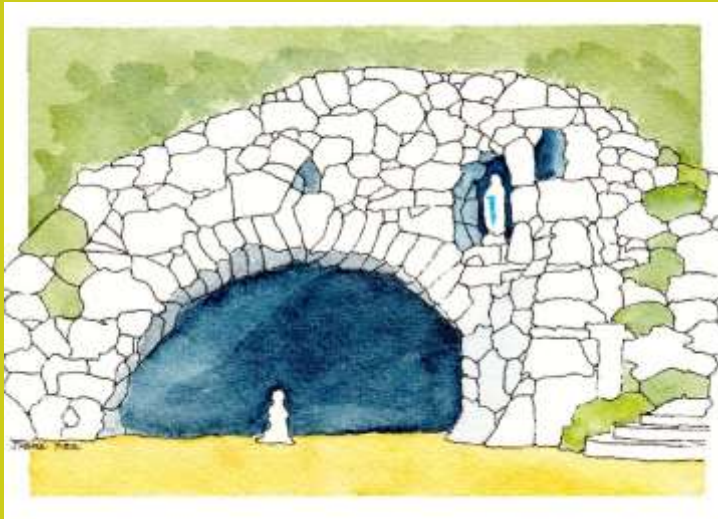

We are committed to advancing Indigenous Wellness, Reconciliation and Human Rights.

What is your commitment to Truth, Justice and Reconciliation?

We have described for you a mountain. We have shown you the path to the top. We call upon you to do the climbing.

THE HONORABLE MURRAY SINCLAIR
LAWYER, JUDGE, FORMER SENATOR

Providence HEALTH CARE
Here you want to be treated.
