“When the song of the angels is stilled, when the star in the sky is gone, when the kings and princes are home, when the shepherds are back with the flocks, then the work of Christmas begins:

to find the lost,
to heal those broken in spirit,
to feed the hungry,
to release the oppressed,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among all peoples,
to make a little music with the heart ...

And to radiate the Light of Christ,
Everyday, in every way, in all that we do and in all that we say.
Then the work of Christmas begins.

Holy Cross Village Employee Christmas Party

One of the highlights of the year for residents of Holy Cross Village is the skits the employees have at their annual Christmas party. This year no winner was determined, so the skits became more fun than competition. Four groups performed this year. Residents of Schubert-Villa sang, “Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer,” with the help of an employee dressed as a reindeer. The culinary staff of Sodexo sang, “The Twelve Days of Christmas.” The Holy Cross Village enrichment staff had a skit called, “The Day Before Christmas.” The final act was Rudolph and his reindeer team bringing in Santa (resident John Quigley). Over 100 Holy Cross Village employees and 30 some Sodexo culinary workers had a great time...and so did the residents of Holy Cross Village.

Brothers Join in Christmas Dinner

On Wednesday, December 15, the five brothers living at the Maple Lane Apartments in South Bend joined other residents of the Maple Lane Apartments for a Polish Christmas Dinner in the community clubhouse. The brothers gather twice a month at Andre Place for the community dinner and again at a different restaurant each month for dinner and a community meeting. The group have been living at the Maple Lane Apartments for the past seven months. The group pictured from left to right include Brothers Frederick Raehsler, Bernard Donahoe, Charles Gregg, Thomas Cunningham and Charles McBride.
