Bishop Rhoades Visits Brothers at Holy Cross Village

On Tuesday, May 3, The Most Reverend Kevin Carl Rhoades, Bishop of the Fort Wayne – South Bend Diocese, said the 5:00 p.m. Mass at St. Joseph Chapel in Holy Cross Village for the Brothers and any Village or Holy Cross College students who wished to attend. Following Mass the bishop had dinner with the Brothers in the Bistro of Andre Place. For the past 16 months since his installation as Bishop of the Fort Wayne – South Bend Diocese on January 13, 2010, he has visited most of the parishes, schools, hospitals, nursing homes and religious communities within his diocese. The bishop had visited Columba Hall and community houses on the University of Notre Dame campus earlier.

Angelus Winners to be Aired at Notre Dame This Weekend

This Saturday night from 7-9 PM the Angelus Student Film Festival winners will be at the Browning Auditorium in the De Bartolo Center, University of Notre Dame, to screen four short films and participate in a Q and A with the audience. The films include the 2010 Patrick Peyton Excellence in Filmmaking Award winner Luke Matheny and his 2011 Oscar winning film “God of Love.” All CSC’s and their guests are warmly invited.

Angelus is a work of Family Theater Productions and is in its 16th year. Twice it has been chosen by MovieMaker Magazine as the “Best Bet” for student filmmakers. Each year 500-700 entries come from 28 different countries and 180 film schools.
