Brother James Kane Gives ‘Always an Artist’ Presentation at Andre Place

Brother James Kane, a resident of Columba Hall, and member of the Moreau Province of Brothers, gave a presentation entitled ‘Always an Artist’ to Holy Cross Village residents on Friday, October 10, in Brother William Geenen Hall of Andre Place. For years Brother James was a mathematics and computer science teacher in schools of the former Eastern Province of Holy Cross Brothers.

Brother James wrote of his presentation, “Always an Artist describes a person – me in this case – who is the sum total of all that has gone before in life: culture, learning, feelings, likes and loves, skills and limitations. An artist is one who communicates from memory, from imagination, into a creative expression – drawing, speaking, writing, music – that connects with others in an enduring, mystifying, mysterious way. Performing art is a transcendent act that is an incubator for the spirit, it is a participation in what the creative symbols or images represent.”

Building on Holy Cross Traditions

Ground Breaking for Holy Cross College Residence Hall

"Change is good!" Holy Cross College President Brother John Paige, C.S.C. used these words while highlighting the new look at Holy Cross College in Notre Dame, Indiana. A ground breaking ceremony was held at October 10 to formally kick-off construction of the new building. Members of College's Board of Trustees, administration, faculty, staff, students, and special guests were present to celebrate the expansion of Holy Cross. At the ground breaking, Brother John noted that the new dormitory will add campus housing for 68 young female leaders of tomorrow. The overall campus housing capacity will increase by approximately 30 percent, a significant increase in the makeup of the campus community.

The new physical structure also means a dramatic change to the look of Holy Cross College's campus. The center of the campus evolves from concrete parking, into a grassy student-centered quad, a green space in which students and faculty can gather. Brother John called this new centralized courtyard "... a marvelous space to increase our collegiate atmosphere and support the relationships we build at Holy Cross."

The changes do not stop there. New basketball, beach volleyball, and first of its kind, regulation dodge ball courts will be constructed adjacent to the Pfeil Recreation Center. Expanded parking on the southeast side of the college will allow easy access to activities and events for students and visitors of the college.

President Brother John Paige closed the ground breaking event with, "As the saying goes, 'Here we grow again'. Yes, change is coming to Holy Cross' campus...and change is good!"

Columba Hall Roof Walkers

It was no easy task for the Slatile Roofing Company to transfer tons of roofing shingles from their boom truck to the roof of Columba Hall, more than four stories up. Workers, without safety harnesses unloaded the shingles to be used on the east side of the building. The re-roofing of Columba Hall has had numerous weather related delays, but work on the east side of the building is complete and scaffolding has moved to the front. From now on the project will be more visible to those keeping up with progress. If the rain would just hold off, the re-roofing project should be completed within a few weeks. The Columba Hall roof and gutter replacements are made possible by the generous donations to the 2013 Annual Appeal of the Brothers.

Holy Cross Mission and Heritage is the Heart of
St. Edward High School

At St. Edward High School, Lakewood, Ohio, the Holy Cross Mission and Heritage is at the heart of each and everything they do. From their academic programs to co-curricular activities, and from fine arts to athletics programs, their mission to "educate the hearts and minds of young men to have the competence to see and the courage to act as men of faith" remains paramount. The Office of Mission Effectiveness works to ensure that the chrism and spirituality of the Congregation of Holy Cross is present in the lives of all of their students. They provide a wide variety of liturgy and prayer opportunities, an extensive array of retreat options, a four-year service leaning curriculum as well as a number of school-wide service projects and programs. Additionally, they offer a number of leadership opportunities, calling all of their students to lives of Holy Cross Servant Leadership.
