Winds and Rains

Winds and rains stormed through Holy Cross Village on Monday, June 20, leveling several trees and damaging others. Trees along 933 north of the campus entrance were blocking the highway for a while, and several trees around the property were damaged. Pine trees in the Brothers' cemetery and in front of Schubert Villa were pulled from the ground and part of a locust tree fell on the roof of St. Joseph Place.

At Schubert Villa the wooden structure over the patio, outside of the dining room, was blown to the ground.

Leadership Program Visits Columba Hall

Eighty-Five students from Holy Cross Institutions in the NE quarter of the US spent four days at Notre Dame. A Columba Hall luncheon provided an opportunity, once again, for Brothers to keep in touch with the schools.
