BROTHERS of HOLY CROSS - NOTRE DAME, INDIANA

Vol. 3, No. 16

July 1, 1970

On June 14, Brothers Terrence Corrigan, Michael Coudriet, Jack Richeson and Michael Hurley (SW) made their first profession at Holy Cross Brothers Center. At the same ceremony, Brothers Bruce Lescher and Louis Mangini took final vows. Brother Dominic Mree made final profession in Pakistan on May 10. Brother Richard Smith took his final vows at his home parish in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, on June 14.

With the closing of St. Joseph Novitiate at Valatie at the beginning of June, Brother David Fitzgerald was transferred to Austin, Texas, for the completion of his novitiate year. He will be professed in August.

Brother Thomas Shaughnessy has been employed as a Caseworker by the Family Service Association in Terre Haute for a nine week period this summer. He will continue part time work at Gibault. In the fall, Brother Thomas will take up new duties at Archbishop Hoban High School, Akron.

At their recent chapters, Rev. Howard Kenna was reelected provincial for the Indiana Province of Priests and Rev. Christopher J. O'Toole was reelected provincial for the Southern Province of Priests.

The first of the WORKSHOPS IN CONTEMPORARY RELIGIOUS LIFE closed yesterday. Reports of those attending the workshop were quite favorable. The second workshop will begin July 12 and the third August 2. There are still places available in these workshops. Write Brother Charles Rymarowicz at Basil Hall.

Father Lalande and Brother Donatus left the South Bend area around June 22 to attend chapters of other provinces. Brother Donatus will return to Rome on July 13. Father Lalande will not return until Mid August.

Brothers Richard Reaume and Peter Gilles have recently signed dispensations from final vows. Brother Daniel McGinley was dispensed from temporary vows. Exclaustrations have been signed by Brothers Paul Dittmer, John Henry Kuhn, and Albert Rimlinger.
