Archbishop Hoban High School New Staff

New staff members for for school year 2017-2018 visit Holy Cross, Notre Dame, Indiana.

Brother Robert Livernois brought four teachers from the religious studies department of Hoban to tour the Notre Dame area in Indiana where three societies of Holy Cross reside. They stayed at Columba Hall. On Wednesday morning was a visit to the archives and Brothers at the administration building.

An overview tour of area Holy Cross congregations located here at Notre Dame provides a wonderful orientation for new staff members joining our sponsored ministries.

An Enjoyable Service

Yesterday, Aug 10, I talked to Brother Donald Kuchenmeister by way of Skype. He is still in Santiago, Chile, and has moved to a retirement home for Holy Cross men. San Roque Parish is still on his ministry list. Making cookies and bread to sell at the parish school to raise money to help the elderly in the parish is still one of his joys. In October is the parish flea market. Last year Donald helped make 5,000 cookies and 2,000 empanadas.

Click below to view a Spanish video of his ministry. Brother Donald is featured. If you do not speak Spanish, you will understand what is happening by just watching.

Unique Tradition

Cathedral High School seniors have a unique tradition of how they welcome students to the new school year. Dating back to 1985, the tradition is for seniors to "decorate" the trees on the drive up to campus with toilet paper. Check out the story and film courtesy of TV channel 6 in Indy.

Invitation for the Brothers to attend the Mass and Dinner on August 24th.

Note: With the RSVP is the opportunity for transportation provided by Notre Dame. Pick up points are Andre Place at the Village and Columba Hall.

Dear Holy Cross Brothers:

I would like to cordially invite you to participate in a special event associated with the Notre Dame Trail. On Thursday, August 24, we will host a Mass at St. Pius X in Granger at 5:30 p.m., immediately followed by a dinner at St. Joe Farm honoring the Congregation of Holy Cross. We are inviting all the local Brothers, Sisters and Priests to join the pilgrims walking the Notre Dame Trail. Because parking is limited, we will be providing bus transportation to and from both Columba Hall and Holy Cross Village. Please register at this link.
