Holy Cross ——— Many Branches

From a Columba Hall Lyric Poet.

Jim and Elaine Buddie
on their 40th Wedding Anniversary

How sweet the sound fidelity makes across the strings of many years.
The grace, the ease, rapprochement takes to sweeten tongues and soften ears.

You vowed to love, and love you did in green and dry, in thick and thin.
You wintered well when summer hid,
and spring seemed never sure to win.

That's man and wife—divine surprise to weather year by year your souls together woven till you surmise your path together reached your goals.

Cathedral Student Mary Kate on Ghana Research Trip

Victoria Temple, the Board Chair of the Cathedral High School in Indianapolis is in Ghana with Mary Kate, her 2nd daughter. Mary Kate is going to be a senior at Notre Dame at the beginning of the academic year and has to research. She chose to research female education with Savannah Signature, an NGO in Tamale, Ghana. They arrived on the 19th of June and will stay through the end of July. They live in a hotel not far from where I live in Tamale. The provincial (Brother Kenneth Haders) mentioned them to me while I was over in the USA for my Jubilee and asked if I could extend a helping hand to them. I did just that.

Holy Cross Roads Writings for the Journey

Hearts Burning

If Jesus has conquered death and if he is a part of us “in Christ” and we are a part of him (“the Body of Christ”) then we too can avoid being too afraid of death. Death can take many forms: death of our human bodies, death of a relationship, death of moving from one place to another, separation from a particular community. In all of these things Jesus tells us that life will go on. In time something new will be born in us. What he asks of us is to have the trust to live through a time of darkness and with hope to wait for “the morning sun.” When we have shared the grief of loss we are experiencing, we can wait with expectancy for the new fire of the resurrection. Like the disciples we can say, “Were not our hearts burning within us as we recognized him in the breaking of the bread?” Suddenly the road ahead of us is not a dead end but the beginning of a way of life and a sense of purpose that God had in mind for us all along. Our hearts will burn anew. Once again we are able to praise God “for God’s marvelous deeds.”

- Have you experienced a “death” that eventually led to an awakening of new life?
- What might be “dying in you” now that longs for new life?
- Are you able to have the trust and the time that it takes to bring about new life?

O God, help me recognize the death and resurrection taking place in my life.

Reflection
Sent in by Brother Thomas Maddix, C.S.C.

An advertisement for Providence Health Care. The background is dark blue. In the center is a close-up of a goldfish's face, looking directly at the camera with its mouth slightly open. The goldfish has orange and pinkish scales. In the top right corner, the Providence Health Care logo is visible, with the tagline "How you want to be treated." Below the logo, the text reads: "Why do they call it rush hour when nothing moves?" followed by "- Robin Williams". At the bottom of the advertisement, in small white text, it says: "THIS REFLECTION IS COURTESY OF MISSION, ETHICS &amp; SPIRITUALITY + PROVIDENCE HEALTH CARE VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA www.providencehealthcare.org".
